

Dr. Sandra Hulac Bio

Dr. Sandra Hulac was born in Munich, Germany and graduated from the University of Witten/Herdecke dental school in 1993. After practicing for some time in London, Dr. Hulac relocated with her family to Hong Kong in 2001. In 2007, she co-founded Tam, Hulac & Partners, one of the few interdisciplinary dental practices in Hong Kong.

Dr. Hulac has been a member of the AACD since 2008 and achieved Accredited Member status in 2014. In 2019 Dr. Hulac became the 83 individual worldwide achieving Accredited Fellow status in the AACD.

Dr. Hulac has published several articles, is a Clinical Instructor at the Kois Center in Seattle, an Honorary Assistant Professor at the University of Hong Kong and part of the guest faculty at the Australasian College of Dental Practitioners.

Her special interests are restorative and cosmetic dentistry, with a focus on minimally invasive and composite dentistry.

Topics

Mastering Injectable Composites: Advanced Techniques for Complex Cases

- Material
- Survival Rates
- Case Selection
- Case Examples
- Planning: Photography, DSD
- Pre- treatment
- Injectable composite: Matrix fabrications, Single matrix or alternating technique, analog or digital. Going through a cases step by step.